

Manuela Schöbel-Lumb (Germany)

For many years Manuela Lumb worked as a creative producer for different animation and live action companies. During these years she produced commissioned films for private and public broadcasters, as well as for advertising. Besides that she produced short animation (festival) films, some of them were repeated prize winners. She was a cofounder of a distribution company, specialised in animated shorts.

In 1998 she became commissioning editor at public broadcaster SWR (ARD), responsible for Children's and Family Programmes. Up from 2002 she was responsible for "The Show with the Mouse" (Sendung mit der Maus) at WDR in Cologne. During her career as a commissioning editor she produced many animated TV series, specials and animated features films.

Since July 07 she works as a free-lance editor, creative producer and dramaturge.