

Agnès Bizzaro (Germany)

I was born on 14th January 1963 in Paimpol in Brittany, France, in a region to which I am very attached.

After studying politics and communications at the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris, I chose to work in television because politics didn't appeal to me.

I first worked as a production assistant for fiction and animation at CinéTévé, CSM Productions before moving to the youth service of France 2 / France 3 where I was responsible for coproductions under Mireille Chalvon. Then I went to try out the private station M6, where I was responsible for the production of fiction. I worked on the development and production of series, sitcoms and TV films.

I regularly attend the Cartoon Forum as producer, broadcaster and now as chairperson since Arles in 1997. And I am still a fan of this forum!

I have lived in Plourivo, Plouézec, Rennes, Paris, Oxford, Nantes, Frankfurt/Main, and I am now living in Berlin for the last 8 years. I love Martine, Mafalda, Luky Luke, Garfield, Gaston Lagaffe, Calvin and Hobbes, One Piece, Valérian, not forgetting Stefan (my husband) and Kilian (my son) ...

When I'm not reading comic strips, I watch German television and I write concepts for series (or at least I try). Or else I go walking or swimming.
